

READING RESPONSES

No. Response starters...

1 I like what I just read because...

2 The last event that occurred in the story was...

3 The part I read today was mostly about one character. This character was a(n) _____ kind of person because he/she...

4 So far, the protagonist (good guy) in the story seems to be...

5 So far, the antagonist (bad guy) seems to be...

6 One new idea I learned is...

7 In the next part of my book, I predict that _____ will probably happen because...

8 My prediction that _____ would happen turned out to be right.

9 This book could be better if...

10 I was surprised by what I read today because I thought it would be about _____ but it was about _____ instead.

11 I would like to read more books like this one because...

12 I would recommend this book to students who...

13 I admire what this character did because (or BUT)...

14 The main character so far seems to be _____ because...

15 I did not understand what I read today because...

16 I will share this book with _____ because...

17 What made the book I read today funny was...

18 If I were the author, I would add...

19 If I could be a person in this story, I would be _____ because...

20 What I read did not make sense because...

21 I identify with or can relate to _____ in the story because...

22 A character who has a problem like mine to solve is _____ because...

23 The story is getting more exciting because...

24 This story is important to me because...

25 If I could, I would change the part about...

26 I enjoy _____ in this story.

27 I did (or did not) like the part I read today because...

28 One of the conflicts faced by the characters in this story is...

29 I think the climax of the story was...

30 The setting of this story is important to the events that take place because...

31 If the characters in this book came to my school...

32 If I could change the ending of the story I would...

33 If I wrote a story about these characters it would be about...

34 I did (or did not) like the ending to the story because...

35 YOUR OWN RESPONSE...
